Upon request by the disclosing Party, the receiving Party will promptly return or destroy the original and all copies of Confidential Information received.

13. Assignment and Subcontracting

Neither Party may assign or subcontract its duties or responsibilities under the Contract without the prior written consent of the other Party. Unless otherwise stated in the consent, any assignment or subcontracting, with or without the required consent, will not relieve the assigning Party of its duties or obligations under the Contract or its responsibility for non-performance or Default by its assignee or subcontractor.

14. Excusable Non-Performance

No party shall be liable or responsible to the other party, nor be deemed to have defaulted under or breached this Agreement, for any failure or delay in fulfilling or performing any term of this Agreement (except for any obligations to make payments to the other party hereunder), when and to the extent such failure or delay is caused by or results from the following force majeure events

The Impacted Party shall give notice as soon as possible of the Force Majeure Event to the other party, stating the period of time the occurrence is expected to continue, if reasonably known. The Impacted Party shall use diligent efforts to end the failure or delay and ensure the effects of such Force Majeure Event are minimized. The Impacted Party shall resume the performance of its obligations as soon as reasonably practicable after the removal of the cause. In the event that the Impacted Party's failure or delay remains uncured for a period of ninety (90) days following written notice given by it under this Section, either party may thereafter terminate this Agreement upon thirty (30) days' written notice.

16. Security Interest

Buyer hereby grants to Seller a security interest in all of the Material now or hereafter acquired by the Buyer hereunder, including Material stored on Seller's or Buyer's premises, until such time as 17.3 Waiver. The failure of either party to enforce any right or remedy provided in the Contract or by law on a particular occasion will not be deemed a waiver of that right or remedy on a subsequent occasion or a waiver of any other right or remedy.

17.4 Entire Agreement. The Contract constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to its subject matter, and supersedes all prior oral or written representations or agreements by the Parties with respect to the subject matter of the Contract, including Buyer's request for quotation and Seller's quotation unless specifically incorporated in the Contract. Except as authorized in Section 1.2, no subsequent terms, conditions, understandings, or agreements purporting to modify the terms of the Contract will be binding unless in writing and signed by both Parties.

17.5 Severability. A finding that any provision of the Contract is invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction will not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of the Contract or the validity or enforceability of that provision in any other jurisdiction.
